Dear Stan:

Thank you for your letter of December 20, 1977 informing us that Mr. Cord Meyer, Jr. is retiring from the Agency at the end of December and that he will be replaced on the Working Group on Terrorism and its Executive Committee.

For the past several years Mr. Meyer has served on the Working Group and on various inter-agency bodies concerned with combating terrorism with great distinction. He brought his extensive professional skills to bear on the task of assuring that better intelligence and a broader exchange of data on international terrorism be available for policy and crisis management decision-making. We wish to express our gratitude to him for his many contributions.

Sir:

As you know, Cord Meyer is retiring on 31 December. I asked Cord to present me with his recommendations on how best to carry on his responsibilities. His paper is attached. I believe his recommendations would be acceptable to the parties to whom he would will his chores. The question, however, is whether this meets your desire. Ultimate decisions could perhaps be left until the new Mr. DDCI arrives. It would present a bit of an awkward transition, but I could wire something together. May I have your pleasure.

Description of My Assigned Duties as SA/DDCI

b. DCI Ltr. dated 3 Nov 1977 Re Nominations to Working Group on Terrorism and Its Executive Committee

X1 You asked me to prepare a brief memorandum to you as to how my present duties might be reassigned when I retire. The following are my initial suggestions. I have not coordinated with anyone else since I thought you and [] might want to discuss with me these ideas before going any further.

X1 1. International Terrorism - As you know, the DCI has appointed me as the Agency's representative on the newly-established Executive Committee on Terrorism, chaired by Ambassador Isham, and on the Working Group with [] as my alternate in both capacities. I also serve as Ambassador Isham's principal point of contact in the Agency for intelligence support from the Intelligence Community. In that capacity, I have supervised the work of the International Terrorism Control unit of DDO under [], coordinated the production of finished intelligence on international terrorism done by ORPA and dealt with other agencies in the Intelligence Community on matters dealing with terrorism. As I see it there are three possible options for handling this part of my job in the future:

X1 a. A senior officer could be appointed to succeed me as Special Assistant to the Deputy Director and take on this job as part of his duties.

THE DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

October 27, 1977

Dear Stan:

By the NSC decision memorandum of September 16, 1977, the Cabinet Committee to Combat Terrorism was abolished, and in its stead an NSC/SCC Working Group on Terrorism was established. The functions of the Working Group include serving as a forum for a continuing exchange of information and ideas among agencies having jurisdictional and support responsibilities for dealing with either domestic or foreign terrorism. The Working Group will have an Executive Committee.

The Working Group is to consist of senior level representatives from all agencies with these responsibilities. The Executive Committee shall consist of representatives from the Departments of State, Defense, Justice, Treasury, Transportation, Energy, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the NSC Staff. The Department of State representative is to chair both the Working Group and the Executive Committee, while his Deputy will be the representative from the Department of Justice.

Ambassador Heyward Isham, Director of the Office for Combatting Terrorism (M/CT) has been designated as the State Department representative, and Mr. John E. Karkashian, Deputy Director, M/CT, as his alternate.

The Honorable
Stansfield Turner,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency.

-2-

I would be grateful if you would designate a senior representative (and an alternate) from your agency to serve on the Working Group and on the Executive Committee. You may, of course, wish to designate the same representative to serve on both entities.

I look forward to having your nomination as soon as possible so that work may go forward promptly under this new authority.

Sincerely,

Warren Christopher
